EXPLANATION OF VOTE

HOUSE BILL NO. 1858

Mr. Speaker:

I believe the right to drive a motor vehicle includes the responsibility of providing payment of injuries the driver may cause, but I am also in the insurance business. I cannot in good conscience vote for a bill that will compel people to pay more money for a product for which I would gain a larger income.

I, therefore, wish to explain that I deliberately will vote "Present but not voting" on House Bill 1858, and request that my remarks be spread upon the Journal. I also express the opinion this bill is unworkable unless it provides some form of no-fault insurance.

BEN LONGLEY,
Representative - 24th District.
